

Airport fully operational following resolution of hostage situation

April 20, 2009

Following the safe and peaceful end to the hostage situation at the Sangster International Airport, MBJ Airports Limited wishes to advise that the airport is fully operational.

The incident is still under investigation and remains a police matter, as such all enquiries in this regard are to be directed to the Jamaica Constabulary Force's Communication Department – Karl Angell at (876)322-7666.

The latest information from the Jamaica Constabulary Force may be accessed through the Government of Jamaica's information agency, the Jamaica Information Service at www.jis.gov.jm.

An official statement from the Vancouver Airport Services on this matter may be viewed at <http://www.cnw.ca/en/releases/archive/April2009/20/c3459.html>.

For information on operations at Sangster International Airport, please contact the airport's Chief Commercial Officer, Elizabeth Scotton at escotton@mbjairport.com.