

2015 Winter Storm

Airport Update #1

Monday January 26, 2015, 11:45 a.m. – Please be advised that a storm system off the East Coast is expected to strengthen as it develops into a major nor'easter on Monday.

Flights departing to and arriving from this region may be delayed or cancelled.

The travelling public is encouraged to contact their respective airline directly regarding flight operations. Even flights not destined to this region may be impacted as the airline networks back up from delays.

Jetblue Airlines has confirmed cancellation of the following flights:

F780 MBJ/JFK – Monday, January 26th

F779 JFK/MBJ – Tuesday, January 27th

MBJ Airports Limited is in contact with all airlines and will update arrivals and departures information on our website as information becomes available.

Media Statement:

In the interest of the safety of our customers and crewmembers, we have canceled flights through Wednesday morning ahead of the snowstorm that is predicted to disrupt air travel across the Eastern region on the United States. We've canceled these flights well in advance of their scheduled departures to give customers time to make necessary travel arrangements and are offering rebooking for the next available flight.

As of Sunday evening, we have canceled in Kingston and Montego Bay approximately 4 flights for Monday, January 26, 2015 and for Tuesday January 27, 2015.

These flights are as follows:

B6 060/26 January Kingston to New York

B6 780/26 January Montego Bay to New York

B6 059/27 January New York to Kingston

B6 779/27 January New York to Montego Bay

We will reach out to customers booked on canceled flights via the contact information provided at booking. For customers still currently scheduled to fly Monday or Tuesday, we're waiving change/cancel fees and fare differences for select cities through Friday, January 30, 2015 if they wish to rebook. Customers can visit jetblue.com for rebooking or additional information, or call 1-800-963-3014 (from a landline) or 1-866-963-3014 (from a cell phone) for support.
