

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Tropical Storm Warning in effect for Jamaica
- Sangster International Airport Remains Operational

Montego Bay, Jamaica: October 23, 2025 - 11:00 A.M.

A Tropical Storm Warning is now in effect for Jamaica.

Based on the bulletin released by the Meteorological Service of Jamaica on Thursday, October 23, 2025, at 8:00 a.m., which details the predicted path of Tropical Storm Melissa, Sangster International Airport (SIA) remains open and operating normally at this time.

MBJ Airports Limited (MBJ), operators of Sangster International Airport, continues to closely monitor the projected path of Tropical Storm Melissa and its potential effect on the airport and airline operations. The safety and well-being of our passengers and staff remain our top priority.

Passengers are urged to contact their airline for the latest flight information and to make changes to their reservations prior to making their way to the airport.

Airline information may be found on MBJ website at International Airlines - Montego Bay Jamaica Airport \(mbjairport.com\).

Stay Updated

MBJ will continue monitoring the situation and will post flight operation updates, including any extra flight operations or cancellations as well as updates on the effects of Tropical Storm Melissa on operations at the SIA on the following platforms:
