

JM $30 MILLION HANDED OVER TO 184 STUDENTS AND 3 INSTITUTIONS

APRIL 2026

GRANT AWARD Ceremony

"DESTINY HELPERS"

SHANE MUNROE

CEO - MBJ AIRPORTS LIMITED

“The event is part of the airport’s long-term commitment, focused on education and sustainability.

Challenges may arise, such as Hurricane Melissa, but here you are. You did not quit, you adapted, you kept going, and that resilience, that refusal to not be defined by challenges is the very quality that tells us that our investment is sound”.

“Some of our students here were recipients last year, so this is certainly not a one-off investment. We would like to ensure that we see you all the way through to graduation. So, take this grant, use it wisely, and let it fuel your next chapter”.

Beyond the student grants, a significant portion of the funds - J$15 million - has been earmarked for the urgent rebuilding of schools damaged by Hurricane Melissa. This initiative is being supported by additional funds from MBJ’s shareholders, Grupo Aeroportuario del Pacífico (GAP) and Vantage Airport Group, which aim to support the recovery of schools impacted by Hurricane Melissa.”

EMPOWERMENT THROUGH ACTION

MBJ Foundation continues to champion support

Fitness & philanthropy

The MBJ Foundation Charity Run/Walk Grant Awards Ceremony themed “Destiny Helpers,” was a heartfelt celebration of the sponsors whose generosity and commitment made a lasting difference in education and community development.

With the remarkable support of 110 sponsors, 184 tertiary and secondary students and three institutions from Western Jamaica, were awarded a total of JM$30 million in grants.

The event held on March 17 at the Sangster International Airport Departures Terminal was the culmination of the 2025 MBJ Charity Run/Walk held last September.

The celebration was more than an acknowledgment of financial support; it was a testament of the power of partnership. Together we demonstrated that when people unite with a shared vision, the ripple effects extend far beyond the immediate beneficiaries.

As we look ahead, we remain deeply grateful to our Destiny Helpers.

We want to be a part of the recovery process and we must ensure that the private sector works with the Government, and with the public sector. That’s what community looks like, when private enterprise, government and citizens come together for a shared purpose.

Manager, Commercial Business
Development & Marketing
MBJ Airports Limited

“ Over the past five years, the MBJ Team Sangster Charity Run/Walk initiative has raised and donated $71 million, directly impacting the lives of 1,720 students, and many more indirectly.

- SHARON HISLOP HOLT

The Team Sangster Charity Run/Walk for Education was created with a simple but meaningful purpose: to bring our community together in support of education and to provide opportunities for students who aspire to achieve more through learning.

134 tertiary-level students each received $100,000, while 50 secondary-level students received $40,000 each. Additionally, 1 community organization supporting 15 students with special needs received $300,000 in cash assistance. A total of $15 million has been distributed directly to the recipients.

Due to damage sustained at some schools, some secondary institutions are still operating classes on a part-time basis, resulting in a number of students falling behind on their syllabus.

Therefore, $15 million raised from the Charity Run/Walk will be combined with funding from MBJ's shareholders, GAP and Vantage, to undertake critical repairs at two schools damaged severely by Hurricane Melissa.

This effort aims to restore their facilities, enabling many more students to return to full-time schooling and remain in step with their peers academically.

"I will take this opportunity also to reiterate the importance of education, not just as a vehicle for your individual success, but applied education, a vehicle to our country's productivity," he said.

Describing the ceremony as "a very pivotal one" for Montego Bay, Vernon noted his involvement in the initiative at every level. "I've been involved in the entire process, from sponsor to actually participating in the run to being here this afternoon," said Vernon, in commending beneficiaries while urging them to take full advantage of the opportunities being provided.

"I want to recognise the efforts of MBJ and Sangster International Airport; you could have chosen to do anything else, but you have decided to do this."

Vernon went on to urge grant recipients to recognise the effort behind the funding and to maximise its impact.

"I am here today because somebody invested in my destiny and I am delighted to know that destiny helpers are still keeping in Jamaica," Johnson stated.

Highlighting his experience with "destiny helpers" during his own financial struggles while on his academic journey, Johnson had high praise for the MBI shareholders and grant award sponsors.

He challenged the recipients. "Sow the seeds of hard work and determination. Keep your eyes open for all the opportunities that are there, especially when you get to the expensive tertiary level. You don't want to miss out when destiny helpers have things that can assist you in fulfilling your dreams."

The Montego Bay Learning Centre received $300,000 in cash along with over $500,000 worth of essential equipment and furniture, strengthening support for students with special needs.

“There could not have been a better time to receive this grant because Hurricane Melissa did significant damage to our perimeter fence, resulted in us losing all our equipment, furniture and appliances in our technical vocational areas - the canteen, the library area and the office area.

We need to restore the fence and get some urgently needed equipment for the canteen which will allow us to return to a full day operation,” he shared.

"The support is much needed, especially after experiencing Hurricane Melissa. There is a lot of support that my family and I need as it regards to getting the assistance with relevant learning materials because you know the CAPE [Caribbean Advanced Proficiency Examination] is about to start and normally we need extra tutoring to really get those results that we want," he told the Observer.

"I want to study medicine. It is very competitive, hard to get into, and it's a very expensive course. This money is going towards my CAPE results to ensure that I get into the faculty of medicine," Forrester added.

Damarion Hutchinson

"When I saw the MBI grant up for grabs, I took the opportunity. I basically wrote and told them my story. I was authentic with it, I told them what was really happening. Right now, as I am speaking, I am in debt from my law degree. As a first-year student in the Faculty of Law, University of the West Indies (UWI) Mona, it's a bit of a costly degree, but one I would say is a transformative degree because my aim is to become the president of the Caribbean Court of Justice," said Hutchinson.

My story, I don't want it to look bad, but I was left by my mother at about two years old with my great-grandmother who at the time was about 80. She is now 100 years old and so I continue to be guided by her philosophy and just what she would have grounded me in," he explained.

My roof went, my aunt lost her house, so you can imagine that all the focus for me shifted to repairing and rebuilding. I don't have it now and I am uncertain where the financing will come from in regards to the degree, but I must say that this contribution from the MBI is significant," he said. Hutchinson was speaking with the Jamaica Observer on the sidelines of the MBI Charity Run/Walk

"Before the hurricane, I was facing challenges financially and I'm sure many awardees here were doing the same. The grant is coming now in the post-hurricane era to help students who are still in the recovery phase and want to carry on with their studies is good because a lot of students had to drop out. So, MBI stepping in and helping students to continue their studies is phenomenal. Each and every one of us here as scholars, we have a goal, we have a destination we want to reach. And these MBI grants are helping us to achieve that goal and to reach that destination," Egla shared.

Abi Gay Dunkley

"Most money from my family has been allocated to the hurricane relief. Therefore getting a bit of money to at least push me forward for paying exam fees, school fees makes me feel like I am alleviating a burden off my family," the grade 13 student said gratefully.
